Prepared Remarks

Grace Liu, CEO: We entered the quarter focused on execution. Execution remains consistent and management has enough offsetting levers to maintain the annual range.

Robert Mills, CFO: Q2 revenue was $3.45 billion and adjusted EPS was $1.82. We are updating investors on the full-year outlook.

Robert Mills, CFO: Our prior outlook was 2026 revenue growth of 4%-6% and adjusted EPS of $7.10-$7.40. We now expect 2026 revenue growth of 4%-6% and adjusted EPS of $7.10-$7.40.

Analyst Q&A;

Analyst: What is the primary driver behind the change or reaffirmation in guidance?

Grace Liu: The most important factors are healthy traffic, membership income, and productivity offsets despite freight pressure.

Analyst: How should investors think about the durability of demand into 2027?

Grace Liu: We are separating near-term execution effects from the longer-term demand environment and will continue to update investors as visibility improves.

Analyst: What are the key signposts for next quarter?

Robert Mills: Execution against operating milestones, customer timing, and margin progression are the most important signposts.
