Prepared Remarks

Priya Raman, CEO: We entered the quarter focused on execution. Backlog remains intact, but the timing shift into 2027 reduces current-year earnings visibility.

Michael Grant, CFO: Q2 revenue was $2.08 billion and adjusted EPS was $0.98. We are updating investors on the full-year outlook.

Michael Grant, CFO: Our prior outlook was 2026 adjusted EBITDA of $1.80-$1.90 billion. We now expect 2026 adjusted EBITDA of $1.60-$1.70 billion.

Analyst Q&A;

Analyst: What is the primary driver behind the change or reaffirmation in guidance?

Priya Raman: The most important factors are project commissioning delays, higher financing costs, and temporary inverter-component logistics expenses.

Analyst: How should investors think about the durability of demand into 2027?

Priya Raman: We are separating near-term execution effects from the longer-term demand environment and will continue to update investors as visibility improves.

Analyst: What are the key signposts for next quarter?

Michael Grant: Execution against operating milestones, customer timing, and margin progression are the most important signposts.
