Prepared Remarks

Samuel Ortiz, CEO: We entered the quarter focused on execution. Broad-based operating strength supports upward revisions to revenue and earnings expectations.

Karen Patel, CFO: Q2 revenue was $2.90 billion and adjusted EPS was $1.58. We are updating investors on the full-year outlook.

Karen Patel, CFO: Our prior outlook was 2026 revenue growth of 6%-8% and adjusted EPS of $5.90-$6.20. We now expect 2026 revenue growth of 8%-10% and adjusted EPS of $6.20-$6.45.

Analyst Q&A;

Analyst: What is the primary driver behind the change or reaffirmation in guidance?

Samuel Ortiz: The most important factors are stronger utilization, labor productivity, and better-than-planned value-based care enrollment.

Analyst: How should investors think about the durability of demand into 2027?

Samuel Ortiz: We are separating near-term execution effects from the longer-term demand environment and will continue to update investors as visibility improves.

Analyst: What are the key signposts for next quarter?

Karen Patel: Execution against operating milestones, customer timing, and margin progression are the most important signposts.
